ENGLISH PROFICIENCY EXAM

Dear Students,

The English Proficiency Exam will be held online on September 29, 2021 for candidates to transfer undergraduate programs in the 2021-2022 academic year.

The exam aims to assess three skills (writing, listening, and reading), and each skill has the same weight on the overall score.

The students who will be studying in English-medium departments are required to get a minimum score of 60 out of 100 points in order pass. Students in the English Language and Literature and English Language Teaching departments are required to score at least 80 out of 100 points. Please see the table of scores below.

Faculty / Department	English Proficiency Exam (IKU)
English Language and Literature, Foreign Languages Education- English Language Teaching	80 pts.
Other English-medium associate and undergraduate degrees	60 pts.

Our online exams are held on CATS. After you complete your registration, you will receive your username and password. Please go to “cats.iku.edu.tr” and enter your username and password so as to have access to the system.

Planning of the examination is as follows:

5. Once you click “Begin Assessment”, you can see the topics for the writing part. Please choose one topic ONLY.

Write two paragraphs of about 200 words to ONE of the following questions.

In paragraph 1, give two reasons. Support your ideas with explanations and examples.

In paragraph 2, give two effects. Support your ideas with explanations and examples.

TOPIC 1: Write two reasons why some people want to live in a different country. Write two effects of living abroad.

TOPIC 2: Write two reasons why some people want to use private transportation. Write two effects of driving rather than using public transportation.

6. Type your answer in the space below and click “Submit for Grading”.

The screenshot shows a text input area with a character count of 123. Above the input area, it says "Maximum number of characters (including HTML tags added by text editor): 32,000" and "Show Rich-Text Editor (and character count)". A large black arrow points to the right, indicating the input area. Below the input area, there are three buttons: "Save", "Exit", and "SUBMIT FOR GRADING". The "SUBMIT FOR GRADING" button is circled in red.

You will be penalised if you plagiarise (copy-paste from the Internet or a course book). We would like to state that plagiarism is part of academic dishonesty and is a serious issue. If you plagiarise, you will not only get a zero but you might also receive disciplinary punishment.

You must set up a good test environment in online exams and have the necessary technical equipment beforehand. If you encounter an issue, you must first consult the invigilators via “chat room” on the exam page for support. In case of a recurring technical problem, students are asked to send an email at dfsupport@iku.edu.tr with a valid proof (official document, screenshot or video) within 15 minutes after the the examination at the latest. Emails sent after the deadline will not be taken into consideration.

VERY IMPORTANT NOTE: We would like to remind you that it is the students' responsibility to take the exams on time and follow all the steps mentioned above as well as following other announcements regarding the exam procedures.

Wish you the best of health.
